The DIMMER VIEW

A Judge Steps Down

More than 125 people, Friday, paid homage to one of Lemon Grove's most distinguished citizens: San Diego Municipal Court Judge Luther N. Hussey.

Judge Hussey, after 17 years of outstanding service to the bench, had retired.

A retirement luncheon was given for him at Kona Kai club on Shelter Island. It was organized by his close friend, Municipal Court Judge George Crawford who was also master of ceremonies. Taking part in the ceremonies was a long list of bench and bar notables including clerks, secretaries and marshals — and Municipal Court Presiding Judge Charles Schnell: Superior Court Presiding Judge Verne Warner, and California Fourth District Court of Appeals Judge Vincent Whelan.

There was also a large contingent of his townspeople, including a good representation of the L.G. Kiwanis Club and the L.G. Chamber of Commerce.

Mementos given to him included several plaques. The latter were from the S.D. County Bar Assn., the Barristers' club, and the Lemon Grove Review. He was also presented with a key to the City of San Diego and was presented with an embossed resolution from the County Board of Supervisors which contained an uncommonly long list of "whereases".

The L.G. Kiwanis Club, the L.G. Lions Club, the Mexican-American Civic Assn., the Legal Secretaries Assn., and the L.G. Chamber of Commerce all made presentations. Councilman Mike Schaefer presented a 200th Anniversary medallion to Mrs. Hussey, and Dolores Rogers, Judge Hussey's courtroom clerk, gave him a framed display in which many bent and twisted paper clips were mounted. He is a notorious clip twister while deliberating.

Those who made presentations kept their remarks on the lighter side with just enough solemnity to match the meaning of the ceremony.

And Judge Hussey matched the occasion. He responded with a story that brought down the house. Chick Sales would have been proud of him.

But Judge Hussey's serious remarks provided much of the meat to go with the potatoes as he reminded that historians will regard the coming decade as the "most important in the history of jurisprudence."

Said Judge Hussey: "For many years we have answered criticism by smugly admitting that our system is not perfect and proudly asserting that it is nevertheless the best in the world.

"But today, voices from every strata of our society are saying 'the best' is not good enough.

"Not since . . . the Magna Carta have so many lay people shown such an intense interest in the administration of justice.

"They are raising questions and demanding answers.

"Good and bad changes are occurring here and now.

"The bench and the bar of this generation must provide the leadership in a search for better solutions."

It was a rewarding get-together.

It would have been even more rewarding if the affair had been the occasion for announcing Judge Hussey's appointment as a Superior Court judge. Governor Reagan has many letters on his desk from civic and law leaders urging him to make the appointment. There was reason to believe the appointment was in the works.

Except for Judge Hussey's retirement, the appointment most assurely would have come in 1970.

Your Chamber In Action

This column is provided by this publication in the interest of a bigger and stronger Chamber of Commerce. The column will appear weekly until further notice.

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, an organization of business and professional people, organized to aid the residents of this community in their search for services and products, thanks the publisher of the Lemon Grove Review for donating space to this column.

From time to time there will be some humor, some pathos, and some hard facts. The writer of this column is a member of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce who believes that every merchant and professional man, doctors, lawyers, accountants, should belong to the Chamber of Commerce for these reasons.

New and old residents of Lemon Grove inquire at the Chamber office as to where to get a product or a service. People and business firms outside this community write for information about Lemon Grove with the idea of settling here.

Mrs. Joyce Foss, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce dispenses information about your service or business whether or not you are a member. For your own benefit you should be a member of this group because they do you a lot of good.

Membership rates are low and can be paid monthly. You can be an active or an inactive member and you will profit by your membership. Information for the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce should be sent to the Chamber office, 3415 Imperial in Lemon Grove, or you may telephone Mrs. Foss at 469-9621.

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce was founded in 1927 by some business men and only a few of them are still living in Lemon Grove. Back in '27 a couple of members had a gun fight on Main street but neither of the principals were hurt much. One had a "pinked" shoulder, the other a grazed shin-bone. Spetators said they talked a better fight than they shot.

To our knowledge there has never been another shoot-out between members.

MC — Municipal Court Judge George Crawford (right) was master of ceremonies at the retirement luncheon given for Judge Luther N. Hussey Friday. Mrs. Hussey is at center.

BAR — Attorney William A. Yale, president of the San Diego County Bar Association, presents plaque to Judge Hussey for his contribution to bench and bar during 17 years of service.

PRESS — Max Goodwin, right, editor-publisher of this newspaper, greets Judge Hussey after presenting the newspaper's plaque to him for Capability, Integrity and Energy.

FRIEND — Long-time friend John Dail, local insuranceman, poses with Judge Hussey at the ceremony Friday. Dail, who has been ill, is expected to resume his business practice soon.

LG Fire Report

The Lemon Grove Fire Department, for the week of Oct. 6-13, answered five fire calls; three for dry grass and two for burning cars. Here is the rundown:

Oct. 6. Mutual Aid to the La Mesa Department, while that Department was on a fire;

Oct. 7. Grass fire along the railroad tracks at Riviera and Arroya, with no damage, and a grass fire in the 1600 block Imperial ave., of about ½ acre with no damage.

Oct. 7, a car belonging to Magnus Johnson of 7574 Zamco st., burned in the garage, caused by faulty dash wiring and damage about $30.

Oct. 9. A car fire at 1601 Fairfax. Cause of the fire was given as an electric short and damage about $50, the car belonging to Margaret Bon Dran.

Sups Call Public Re-hearing On College Ave. Extension

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The county board of supervisors got all tangled up Tuesday in the consideration of a new specific plan for College ave. from Federal blvd. to 69th and Mallard in Lemon Grove.

When the 45 minutes of confusion was over, the board had voted three to two to hold a public hearing on the controversial road alignment as requested by the Hilltop Chateau.

Supervisors Harry Scheidle and Jack Walsh got the support of Chairman De Graff Austin in setting the hearing, although only moments before Austin had voted with Robert Cozens and Henry A. Boney against Walsh's motion to table.

Tabling the matter would have kept it alive.

The board has adopted a specific plan for the road extension that cuts very close to the chateau, but then instructed the planning commission to hold a hearing on an alternate plan that would wipe out the Bible Presbyterian church.

The commission held its hearing on Oct. 3 and recommended that the board not adopt the alternate specific plan.

Scheidle and Walsh were disturbed that after a recommendation for denial, the supervisors must decide whether they will hold a public hearing on the same item.

They must hold a public hearing if the commission recommends that a specific plan be adopted.

Neither supervisor was on the board when the first plan was adopted and both said they wanted to hear the evidence.

Both made the same comments a number of times, preventing the chairman from calling for a roll call.

Cozens and Boney took the position that the matter had been well heard before the present plan was adopted in July of 1968.

Cozens told Scheidle, "There had been many things done by this board before I got on it, but I did not ask for rehearings."

Scheidle replied that the board itself had asked for the new series of hearings and should complete the series.

Notices will be sent to the property owners affected by both road alignments when the hearing date is set.

Quake Shakes Whole County

An earthquake, lasting nearly a minute, shook the area Tuesday at 6:20 a.m.

The shake registered four on the Richter scale and was centered in the ocean west of San Diego.

No damage was reported.

The quake was felt throughout San Diego county. Seismologists reported the quake lasted 40 seconds.

Scrap Paper Wanted For Children's Home

Old newspapers to aid the Barrett Valley School for Retarded Children are being collected by area residents.

Proceeds from the drive will be used for building funds for a residence school.

The goal is $100,000 and the newspaper-collection campaign is but a small part of the total effort.

Collection locations are at Dave's Texaco, 6310 Federal blvd. and the Helen Craw Foundation Hall, 7640 University ave.

So far, $20,000 has been collected for the project, according to O. C. Novell, chairman of the drive.

The new structure will be erected on property adjacent the Barrett Valley ranch.

Newspaper contributions should be tied in bundles or dropped in paper bags prior to leaving them at the drop-off spots, Novell said.

Chamber Membership Drive Kickoff Set For Monday

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce membership campaign will start Oct. 20 on schedule, Wally Knutsen, membership chairman said today.

More than 450 local business firms have been cataloged and will receive calls from board members.

Knutsen called a special board meeting for 4 p.m. today at the chamber office for distributing assignments to board members.

Board members, he said, would be primarily responsible for contacting prospects.

"We intend to get everyone in business in Lemon Grove involved in chamber activities," Knutsen said. At the special meeting Knutsen will urge the chamber to reduce membership rates for the larger categories.

He will also ask for emphasis to be placed on associate memberships — non-business residents — at $12 a year. "We want to encourage membership among residents who want to have a voice in chamber operations," he said.

Residents who want to take part earlier may contact Joyce Foss, chamber secretary at 469-9621 9-12 and 1-3.

The first membership report will be made at the November 4 regular meeting of the chamber board, he said.

L.G. School Trustees Eye Higher Insurance

The Lemon Grove Elementary School District board of trustees faced a condition that is becoming common with people who buy insurance. The rate's going up.

Paul Reynolds, district business manager told the board that he anticipates a three year contract to replace the five year one the district now has. However, the cost will remain the same — an increase of 40 per cent.

On matters of insurance, the board set the next board meeting for the time and place it would concern itself with insuring itself in the matters of health.

The district presently pays $17 a month of the $34 a month cost for teachers' health insurance. The board will discuss equal treatment for those board members not now covered by such insurance at their place of employment.

School financing, being what it is, came in for a small discussion Monday. It was to shuffle $25,553 around in the budget.

$23,500 was for additional teachers to accommodate increased attendance; $15,000 was for two Miller Math noncertificated teachers, and $1,033 was needed to meet the higher, $126,033 building fund payment, according to Byron Netzley, district superintendent.

The board took note of National School Lunch Week and made an official proclamation in which school food service employees were commended and in which parents were urged to have their youngsters take advantage of the service.

Lunches are served for 30 cents except in junior high where the charge is 35 cents.

Scripps Hospital Fund Campaign Eyes $3 Million

Initiation of a $3,000,000 fund raising appeal has been begun by the Scripps Memorial Hospital Board of Directors, according to Louis M. Peelyon, executive director. The appeal, which is part of a 5.7 million dollar expansion campaign developed to realize the Hospital's Master Plan for extended care facilities and bed expansion, will go to the general public later this Fall.

The building program calls for extensive remodeling of existing areas and construction of a new East Wing encompassing 4 floors for extended care, 1 floor for supporting services, leaving 2 floors shelled in for future needs. Areas to be enlarged are surgery, pathology, radiology, pharmacy, physical therapy and outpatient treatment.

"Scripps Memorial Hospital is a non profit, nonsectarian community hospital, without government subsidies," Peelyon said. "It began as a gift from Ellen Browning Scripps in 1924. Since its beginning the generous contributions of the community have made possible the implementing and improving of facilities and services. However, the compounding needs of the hospital now step financially beyond perennial support and we are asking every community citizen to join in the current building program."

Deukmejian Names Kim Fletcher To Top Post

State Senator, George Deukmejian, Republican candidate for State Attorney General, announced the appointment of Kim Fletcher, president of San Diego's Home Savings and Loan Association, as chairman of the San Diego County Deukmejian for Attorney General Committee. Deukmejian made the announcement at a news conference at the Catamaran Hotel in Mission Bay, following a speaking engagement there.

Politically active in the past, Fletcher worked on both the Eisenhower and Nixon for President campaigns.

Fletcher is a veteran of World War II.

Parking Banned On Massachusetts

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The prohibition of parking on both sides of Massachusetts ave. has been approved by the County Board of Supervisors.

The traffic advisory committee recommended that parking not be allowed between University and Hoffman to free the pavement for extra traffic width in this curving section of the road.

The committee reported that there have been 35 accidents during the past three years, 12 of them involving injuries.

The committee told the board that most of the residents oppose the prohibition, with some of them feeling the parked cars which are often hit actually keep cars out of their homes.

The report to the board said the committee believes that the moving autos involved would have had sufficient manuevering room if no cars had been parked at the curb and would have stayed on the road without accident.

However, the committee acknowledged that inconvenience and even hardship that a parking prohibition would create for the residents.

Left Turn Lane For Orville St. Rejected by Sups

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Joseph Matte, 719 Sweetwater rd., Spring Valley, got sympathy from the County Board of Supervisors on Tuesday, but no comfort.

The board legalized the parking prohibition in front of his house that was placed there by the county engineering department so that a badly-needed left turn lane could be created at Orville st.

The board adopted the recommendation of its traffic advisory committee over Matte's objection.

Matte said he cannot turn into his ten-foot driveway from the right hand lane, and that anyway there is not enough off-street parking for the four cars owned in his family.

He said, "And if I park around the corner of Orville st., the hubcaps get stolen."

Supervisor Harry Scheidle spoke for most of the board members when he said that streets have the primary function of moving traffic, not to furnish parking for private individuals.

He said the county cannot spend general tax money to solve problems for individuals.

Public Works Administrator David K. Speer said that Sweetwater rd. is carrying 17,000 cars a day and that the accident rate from left turns was very serious before the left turn lanes were installed.

Supervisor Henry A. Boney told Matte, "We all appreciate the position this places you in, but we cannot restore the street to its original configuration."

University Examines Smut Cause

From the mouths of babes sometimes come four-letter words. Where do they learn them? Smut mail? X movies? Girlie magazines? Their parents?

University of California Extension will give a one-day conference on Saturday, Oct. 25, to study the whole problem of "Obscenity and Pornography."

Dr. Avrum Stroll, chairman of the UCSD philosophy department and conference coordinator, has arranged for a variety of speakers to present their views on the topic.

Dr. Joseph Gusfield, chairman of the UCSD sociology department, will discuss "On Legislating Morals."

An illustrated talk on "The Evolution of Pornography" will be given by Rubien Brandon, a San Diego Police Department detective.

"Obscenity, Pornography and the Law" will be examined by Judge Roger Ruffin, San Diego Superior Court.

Afternoon speakers will include a professor of psychiatry from UCLA and a member of the Council for Citizens for Decent Literature, Inc.

Atonement Is Lesson

This verse from the Bible is in this week's Christian Science Lesson-Sermon: "John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world."

The subject of the sermon to be read Sunday in all Christian Science churches is "Doctrine of Atonement."

Local services at Christian Science Society Lemon Grove, 771 Pacific ave., are held at 11 a.m.

There are more than 250 species of the aster, most of them growing in North America.

Diocese Appoints 8 Prelates

SAN DIEGO — The Most Rev. Leo T. Maher, new bishop of San Diego, has announced the appointment of eight "honorary prelates" or monsignors. They include the president of the University of San Diego, Very Rev. John E. Baer, and the Chancellor of the diocese, Very Rev. I. Brent Eagen.

The elevations marks a new departure in Roman Catholic church titles. These "honorary prelates," to be called Rev. Monsignor, formerly were known as "domestic prelates" and called Rt. Rev. Monsignor.

The new Rev. Msgrs. are:

John E. Baer, president of USD College for Men; William F. Clavin, pastor, Mary Star of the Sea, Oceanside; John A. Dickie, superintendent of diocesan schools; Donald F. Doxie, pastor, St. Brigid's, Pacific Beach;

I. Brent Eagen, Chancellor, Diocese of San Diego; James P. O'Donoghue, pastor, Our Mother of Confidence, San Diego; Thomas J. O'Toole, pastor, St. Anne's, San Bernardino, and James P. Regan, U. S. Navy Chaplain, Oakland, California.

This is the first announcement from the San Diego Diocesan Office for Apostolic Ministry. Formerly the Chancery, it was renamed at the express wish of Bishop Maher.

The change in title from domestic prelate to honorary prelate is a post-Vatican II updating which has also renamed "papal chamberlains" as "papal chaplains."

An honorary prelate retains the title for his lifetime. Papal chaplains retain the title only for the lifetime of the Pope. Rev. Msgr. Doxie, named among the new prelates, was formerly a papal chamberlain and has been elevated to honorary prelate.

The papal documents of appointment for the new prelates arrived in San Diego last weekend, brought by the Apostolic Delegate to the United States, Archbishop Luigi Raimondi, who installed Bishop Maher as the third bishop of San Diego.

Chancellor Thanks Paper Coverage

Dear Editor:

National Newspaper Week is a significant event deserving the attention of every citizen. Few of us take the time to reflect on the great advantages we enjoy because of freedom of the press in this country.

And even fewer, I presume, take the time to express gratitude to newspaper editors for the rich information available every day.

I'd like to pay my respect to you and other editors of our community newspapers on this occasion. Coverage of the campus has been extensive during the past year — not always to our liking, as we all know.

Nevertheless, the public has followed much of the progress here, thanks to the many pages of information published throughout the year about UCSD's distinguished faculty members and the outstanding students.

I hope you find time to visit here to see the many changes taking place as the campus grows and matures. We would welcome an opportunity to show you some of these exciting developments.

Best wishes for expansion of your paper in both numbers and influence.

Sincerely,
William J. McGill
Chancellor, UCSD

Obituaries

TROY SMITH

Services for Troy J. Smith, 53, of Lemon Grove, were scheduled Tuesday at Bonham Brothers Mortuary Chapel under auspices of VFW County Council Memorial Team.

Smith, of 246 Bonita st., died Friday.

Military burial was scheduled at El Camino Memorial Park.

He is survived by two sons, Jerald L. and Ronnie, both of San Diego; a daughter, Levetta Cristler of Spring Valley: his mother, Ola Gaskins of Lemon Grove; and six sisters, including Myrtle Rountree of Lemon Grove and Odeta Lavine of National City.

BESSIE M. WILLS

Services for Bessie M. Wills, 86, of Lemon Grove, were scheduled yesterday at Greenwood Mortuary in San Diego, followed by burial at Greenwood Memorial Park.

Mrs. Wills, of 7785 Mt. Vernon st., died Sunday.

She is survived by one daughter, Mary Frances Wills of Lemon Grove; and one brother.

MRS. JENNIE MORSE

Funeral services for Mrs. Jennie Morse, 69, of 9902 Jamacha blvd., Spring Valley, were held Oct. 14 at Greenwood Mortuary, with burial in Greenwood Memorial Park. She died Oct. 11 in a hospital.

A native of Michigan, Mrs. Morse had lived in San Diego County 25 years. She had been a housewife for 49 years. She was a past matron of San Miguel Chapter 579, Order of the Eastern Star and a past worthy high priestess of Mt. Helix White Shrine of La Mesa.

She is survived by her husband, Sid; a son, Vernon Morse, and a daughter, Mrs. June Hillberge, both of El Cajon; a sister, Mildred Bell of Spring Valley; a brother; four grandchildren and one great-granddaughter.

MRS. HAZEL CLARK

A native of Ohio, Mrs. Clark had lived in San Diego County 21 years. She was a member of the Spring Valley Woman's Club and the Spring Valley Friends Community Church. She had been a member of the Navy Mothers Club in Ohio.

Hazel Clark is survived by her husband, Donald (former Spring Valley Fire Chief); a daughter, Mrs. Sharon Lucas of Spring Valley; a sister, Mrs. Edna Reck of San Diego. There are three other children, a brother and another sister, all out-of-state; 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Laymen To Guatemala

Eight United Presbyterian laymen from Southland churches will leave Friday (Oct. 24) for Guatemala on a volunteer visitation program that will link them with their occupational counterparts in that Central American country.

The U. S. churchmen, who will return to Los Angeles Nov. 10, will thus become involved in the work, community, social, family, and church life of their Guatemalan hosts.

Sponsored by United Presbyterian Men of the Synod of Southern California, each man volunteers his time and pays his own expenses for the two-and-one-half week experience.

A drug salesman from Lancaster, for example, will work in the Guatemala office of the international CIBA Drug Co. A ranch superintendent from Goleta will work on a coffee plantation.

A chemical engineer from Santa Ana will be assigned to the water department of Guatemala City; an Assistant United States Attorney from Burbank will work in the office of a Guatemala lawyer; and a medical doctor from Ontario will assist in the practice of a Central American physician.

Sponsors of the project are hoping that next year a group of Presbyterian laymen from Guatemala will come to Southern California to work with their counterparts here in a similar cultural exchange.

IRS TAX ANSWERS

F. S. Schmidt, DISTRICT DIRECTOR, INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — Floods did considerable damage to our home. Will I be able to deduct these damages on my income tax return?

A — You may be able to take a casualty loss deduction to the extent the loss exceeds $100 and was not compensated by insurance. Generally, the loss is the difference in the fair market value of the property before and after the flooding.

Details on this provision of the tax law are contained in Publication 547, Tax Information on Disasters, Casualty Losses and Thefts. Send a post card to your District Director to obtain a free copy.

Q — You sent my son a letter about his failure to file a 1968 tax return. Can he wait until he gets back from his military duty in Vietnam before filing it?

A — Yes, if he was on active duty there when the return was due, he may postpone filing his income tax return until 180 days after leaving Vietnam. Notify the IRS office which sent the letter to your son about this combat duty.

Q — Our local fire department had a raffle on a new car recently. Can I deduct the tickets I bought on the car as a charitable contribution? I didn't win it.

A — No, the cost of the raffle tickets you bought are not deductible as contributions. The cost of such tickets is only deductible to the extent of your winnings. If you had won a car, you should deduct the cost of your tickets, but the fair market value of the car would have to be included in income.

Q — Do you have to withhold Social Security tax on money given a maid for carfare?

A — Yes, the Social Security tax applies to the total cash paid a household employee, even though some is paid for transportation.

Tax payments for the July, August, September quarter are due October 31. Any person who has paid $50 or more cash wages in a quarter to an employee for household services (cleaning, gardening, etc.) must file a return using Form 942, Employer's Quarterly Tax Return for Household Employees.

Santa Sophia PTA Will Meet Tonight

The Parent-Teachers Group of Santa Sophia Academy, Spring Valley, will hold their regular monthly meeting in the parish hall at 8 p.m. tonight.

At 7:30 p.m. the classrooms will be open with the work of students on display. Also displayed will be the Halloween Carnival Posters entered by the students in a contest, with the award-winning posters hung in the meeting room.

At the general meeting Mother Claire, principal, will speak to the parents about the school music program and various other activities to be offered during the school year.

A student book fair is being held Oct. 13 through Oct. 16 and books will be on display at the meeting, and through the week in the school library.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Spurgeon, Hospitality, will greet the parents in the hall. Eighth Grade mothers will be hostesses for the social hour, headed by Mesdames Lester A. Fraenzl, Ralph Castellano, Francis X. Kern III, Thomas Stark, and Kenneth Wright.

Women's League Lunches Today

Mrs. Art Chappelle will preside at a noon luncheon meeting of the Business Women' League of Lemon Grove at Brunswick Bowlero, in Lemon Grove today.

Plans will be made for the group's annual Christmas Plaza Decoration, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Alfred Huebsch. Plaza Beautification chairman.

The group's bowling league reports that Mrs. Pete Chappelle scored a high game, just missing the 200 mark, but holding a 233 handicap game. Mrs. Chappelle is one of Lemon Grove's active Senior Citizens.

Rotary Speaker Is Jim Wilson

The regular weekly meeting of the Spring Valley Rotary Club is scheduled Friday.

Luncheon will begin at 12:10 p.m. in Henry Langhorst's Restaurant at Sweetwater Springs rd. and Jamacha blvd.

This will be followed by the regular meeting.

Guest speaker will be James Wilson, who will be introduced by Syd Cole, who is associated with the juvenile program.

Wilson will speak on "Facilitating Integration in the Community of Spring Valley."

The luncheon and meeting are open to all rotarians, according to president Dr. Herman Rauch.

Q—I just got out of service and plan to enter college this fall under the G.I. Bill. Do I have to do anything, or will the school notify VA that I'm a veteran and have enrolled for training?

A—You should apply immediately to the VA Regional Office where your records are on file for a Certificate of Eligibility. This certificate will confirm your entitlement to G.I. Bill educational benefits.

PTA HILITES

SAN ALTOS

The first meeting of the San Altos PTA was held in the school cafetorium October 9, under the capable direction of the new president, Mrs. Darrel Stalnaker.

After the flag ceremony, presented by the Webelos of Pack 307, Arville Smith leader, the Girl's Ensemble of Mt. Miguel High School, entertained with several songs.

The 17 girl ensemble is under the direction of Robert Boucher. Mrs. Stalnaker introduced her board and chairmen and Harold Ball, principal of San Altos, presented the teachers and staff of the school.

Mrs. Manuel Rubicaba, program chairman, introduced the theme for the evening, "Our Need to get Acquainted" and presented Mrs. Hutzell, 6th grade teacher at San Altos, to accompany on the piano, and Ball, who directed an old fashioned "sing along".

Many of the old favorites were enjoyed.

The PTA Board provided refreshments and babysitting was provided.

PALM JR. HIGH

Mrs. Wayne Chubb, president of the Palm Jr. High School PTA will preside at the first regular monthly meeting, to be held on Oct. 16, at 7:30 p.m. at the school.

The flag ceremony will be presented by Jr. Girl Scout Troop 1090, under the direction of their leader, Mrs. Oxi.

Harold Brogan, Principal, will introduce the new teachers, and a proposed budget will be presented for approval.

The program will be "Answers to your Questions". A questionnaire was sent home at the bottom of the Palm Breeze. Any questions that were returned to the school, will be answered by the teaching staff.

Of great interest to the school and the students is the Palm Bowling League. The league started their season this week, at the Lomita Bowl. They meet each Wednesday, after school, at 3 p.m. The league continues from now until April, when the season ends.

Meeting Set

There will be a Presidents' Meeting for members of Foothills Secondary Council, C.C.P.T. Wednesday.

The meeting will be at La Mesa Recreation Center, 8440 University ave., La Mesa at 10 a.m. — 9:30 a.m. coffee and registration.

The topic will be "Responsibility of Being a President."

Arthritis Help

There is no diet that will prevent or cure arthritis. But, Dr. Laurence M. Hursh, Consultant for the Dairy Council of California, says that a proper, balanced diet is an important factor in successfully treating arthritis.

ELECTED — Mrs. Pamela L. McKenney, wife of the late Frank D. McKenney, a Lemon Grove veterinarian, has been elected chairman of the nominating committee of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA).
The election took place at the auxiliary's recent convention in Minneapolis.
Organized in 1917, AVMA's auxiliary is recognized as the nation's oldest women's auxiliary to a medical profession. Today it has almost 9,000 veterinarians' wives as members.
Prior to assuming her present office, Mrs. McKenney served as a member of the executive board of the San Diego Auxiliary of AVMA. She also served as treasurer, president elect and president of the California Veterinary Medical Association Auxiliary.
Mrs. McKenney is a member of the Kensington Community church and is party chairman of the Lemon Grove Lions club.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

"Chicano" is a word that we see frequently in the newspapers and on poster signs. Someone told me that it is the name that the Mexican-Americans have given themselves. Does it have any particular meaning? Also, please explain what is meant by "gringo."

There seems to be a group of Americans of Mexican decent who have selected "Chicano" as the word to identify their culture or heritage. Some sources attribute the origin of the word to "Chinaco," a name given to a group of natives in the southern part of Mexico.

It is most probable that "Chicano" is a word combined from "Chino" and "Mexicano." The combination came about when Chinese and Mexican laborers worked side-by-side in the agricultural fields of the southwest and became known as "Chicano" labor.

"Gringo" is a name sometimes applied to U. S. citizens. It originated during the Mexican-American War. At that time U. S. soldiers wore "green coats" which phonetically sounded like "gringo" in Spanish. "Gringo" is in common use today and is not considered as a derogatory name, often even said with affection.

Today's practice phrases are designed to help you improve your capability in Spanish. They may be easier to learn with the guidance given by the automatic recording which says them for you when you dial 276-2762. Each word and phrase is said separately for you.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "Tiene prisa?" (tee-EH-neh PREE-sah)
for "Are you in a hurry?"
Say "Tengo prisa." (TEHN-goh PREE-sah)
for "I'm in a hurry."

USEFUL PHRASES:

Say "Quedamos aqui?" (keh-DAH-mohs ah-KEE)
Say "No, Vamos. (noh VAH-mohs)
for "No, let's go."

Grossmont Sale Aids Charity

Kappa Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority will sponsor a Pot Pourri Sale on Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Grossmont Shopping Center.

Sale items will include stuffed toys, resin home decor, and miscellaneous household items and bake goods — all made by chapter members.

All profits will be donated to Cystic Fibrosis Research, Miss Marilyn Emery of Lemon Grove service chairman, announced.

Cystic Fibrosis is the philanthropic project of California Beta Sigma Phis. It is a fatal disease of children and young adults. Medication alone for one Cystic Fibrosis victim will cost over $30 a month. The afflicted individual will be disabled and require treatments three times daily and a breathing apparatus to help "Give a Child the Breath of Life".

Welfare Has Sale

Spring Valley Community Welfare Inc. will hold a "RUMMAGE" Sale, Friday and Saturday, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. 1177 Sweetwater rd., 2 doors north of S.V. Post Office.

Benefits are used for 6th Grade Camperships, Scholarships, Girl Scout Camperships and families needing aid in the Spring Valley area.

Mrs. Fred Beyer, "Thrift Shop" chairman is in charge. Call her if you can clerk any amount of hours — 469-7005.

Two families were served in the month of Sept. including 11 people.

Approrimately 100 cans of food was given and other groceries were bought.

A wheel chair was purchased to add to the Sick Room supplies was the report at the Executive Board meeting by the Needy Family chairman. Mrs. Gather Harless, held and conducted in the home of the president, Mrs. Ronald Duncan 8732 Adriana.

'Soft Skin' Is Tonight

Grossmont College will present "The Soft Skin" as the next film in its Fall Director Series at 7 p.m., tonight in the Fine Arts Lecutre Hall.

"The Soft Skin" needs little more to recommend it than the name Francois Truffaut. Truffaut, famed for his direction of "400 Blows," "Shoot the Piano Player" and "Jules and Jim," has based "The Soft Skin" on two actual events.

In Geneva a dignified, respected married man got himself involved with a young girl and ended in the midst of a bizarre murder case. A woman in Paris shot her philandering husband in a restaurant in full view of other diners.

Truffaut took the character of the man from the first case and the crime of the woman from the second case and combined them for "The Soft Skin". Called "A remarkable film" by Life Magazine, the Truffaut "thriller" stars Jean Desailly and the late Francoise Dorleac.

Faucher is a 20-year Kiwanis member with 15 years of perfect attendance. He will preside over the 50-member club each Wednesday at the L.G. Bowlero.
The club raises and spends $7,000 each year on kids' projects in Lemon Grove, Faucher said.
New Kiwanis officers will be honored in January at an "installation" banquet at Singing Hills Country club.

SOCIAL SECURITY

What Requirements For Young Person?

Q. What are the basic requirements that must be met in order for a young person to receive monthly social security benefits as a student?

A. Assuming that the student is the child of a retired, disabled, or deceased parent who is insured under social security, monthly benefits may be made to an unmarried child under 18, or to one between 18 and 22 if the child is a full-time student in an accredited school.

Q. I have doctor bills for medical services received in early 1968. I have never filed a claim with Medicare. Is there a time limit for filing a claim?

A. Yes, there is. Claims for care received during the period October 1, 1967 to September 30, 1968 must be filed by December 31, 1969. There is no provision for late filing of claims.

Q. What is meant by the slogan "Inquire Before You Retire"', appearing in many social security articles and notices?

A. By telephoning your social security office to find out in advance what documents and information you will need when you file an application for retirement, disability, or survivor benefits, you usually reduce the time required to process your claim.

Q. If I am well enough to go home from the hospital before I have used up 90 days, will my Medicare hospital insurance continue to help pay for my care if I want to stay in the hospital?

A. No. Your hospital insurance only pays for services that are medically necessary.

This newspaper presents this question and answer column about the Social Security program as a public service to our readers. The questions are those most frequently asked about Social Security.

The answers are provided by Sumio Oto, El Cajon Social Security Office Manager.

SPECIAL GUEST — Dr. Calvin Nicholl, Lemon Grove optometrist, left, and Dr. Russell Love, Spring Valley optometrist, right, welcome Dr. David Dzik to San Diego. Dr. Dzik, of Chattanooga, was a special guest of the San Diego County Optometric Society and addressed area optometrists and other professional groups on the significant relationship between vision problems, scholastic failure, and juvenile delinquency. Nicholl was chairman for the Society's Second Annual Inter-Disciplinary Forum recently at the Stardust Hotel in Mission Valley. Love is the Society's president-elect.

College Shows Space Pictures

"View From Space," a collection of color and black and white photographs taken from space, has opened in the Student Center at Grossmont College.

Organized by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the exhibition circulated by the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition service will remain on view at Grossmont College through Friday, November 7.

Each photograph in the collection was taken from space, either from an instrumented satellite, spacecraft, sounding rocket, launch vehicle, or by an astronaut. The photographs in the exhibit were selected as representative of the more than a million that have been taken by NASA during the last decade.

The subjects of the photographs vary from tethered astronauts "walking" in space to close-ups of the surface of the moon. Some of the photographers — better known for their other endeavors — include astronauts John Young, Richard Gordon, Charles Conrad and James McDivitt.

The public is invited to view this photographic record of the United State's conquest of space. Viewing hours in the Student Center are from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday, until October 24, when the exhibit will shift to the Library Foyer with viewing hours scheduled from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., Monday through Thursday; 7 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday; 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday; and 1 to 6 p.m., Sunday. There is no admission charge of this exhibition.

Presbytery Meets to Vote

United Presbyterian ministers and lay members from 34 area churches will elect their top honorary leader for 1970 when San Diego Presbytery holds its first stated meeting of the fall Tuesday at 10 a.m. in Point Loma Community Church, 3707 Udal st., San Diego.

The pastor of the host church, the Rev. Paul D. Clark, will welcome the anticipated 150 delegates and visitors from congregations with some 25,000 members in San Diego and Imperial Counties.

San Diego Presbytery is one of seven district units comprising the Synod of Southern California, regional body of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. listing nearly 200,000 communicant members in 265 congregations in nine Southland counties and Hawaii.

H&R Block Inc. Makes Big Board

H & R Block, Inc., said to be America's largest income tax service with 15 offices in San Diego, has been approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange. First trading of common shares was Monday.

Founded in 1955, the tax firm prepared 5,300,000 individual Federal returns last year. The Company has 3286 offices in all 50 states, plus Canada, Puerto Rico, Guam and New Zealand. For the year ended April 30, 1969, total tax preparation volume rose 46% to $56,143,799, and net earnings were up 60% to $3,279,574.

The Company intially offered shares to the public in February 1962. Since that time the value of the Company's stock has risen 900%.

Al Cordray is local manager. The Company plans 5 offices here for the 1970 filing season, located in El Cajon, La Mesa, Bostonia, Spring Valley, and Lemon Grove.

New Headquarters

William T. Verbeck, finance chairman for the Art Akers campaign for City Council (no. 4), has announced the opening of another headquarters tonight at 7 p.m.

The new campaign offices will be located at 4425 University ave.

Machine Politics Seen By Akers

"I don't want to see San Diego become a city controlled by machine politics," Art Akers, candidate for City Council (District No. 4), told supporters at the opening of his downtown campaign headquarters, Friday.

"I am afraid that if we were to elect our city councilmen by districts exclusively, we would be inviting serious trouble. We would be creating fertile soil for corruption such as that seen in many major cities in our nation. Of course, there is the possibility that we might not fall prey to power politics, if we change to a ward-type system, but why take the chance?"

Akers greeted some 50 well-wishers who attended the opening of his headquarters, located at 867 Ninth ave., downtown San Diego.

Arlo Due For Concert

SAN DIEGO — A young folk singer whose third LP album already has shot to the top of the nation's popularity polls makes his San Diego concert debut Oct. 26 at an 8 p.m. performance in the Civic Theater.

Newlywed Arlo Guthrie, who currently is starring in the hit motion picture "Alice's Restaurant," will offer several selections from the long playing disc, "Running Down the Road," when he appears locally.

The young folk singer guitarist is the son of Depression-era balladeer Woody Guthrie, who is best remembered for such classics as "This Land Is Your Land" and "So Long, It's Been Good to Know You."

The younger Guthrie's album of "Alice's Restaurant" includes several top selling singles, ranging from "Now and Then" and "I'm Going Home" to the mournful ballad "Highway in the Wind."

An earlier LP titled "Guthrie" contains several other hit singles, including "Motorcycle Song," "Wouldn't You Believe It," "Try Me One More Time" and "Standing at the Threshold."

Guthrie, 22, was married last week to the former Jackie Hyde of Los Angeles in an open-air ceremony performed amid the rolling hills of the singer's 240-acre estate at Stockbridge, Mass.

U.S. National's Net Up

SAN DIEGO — United States National Bank reported a 59.6% increase in net operating earnings after taxes as compared to the like period of 1968. This increase in partly due to the fact that certain of the newly acquired Branch Banks have reached a point whereby they are contributing to the overall profit of the Bank. This trend is expected to continue into the future.

15 New Cubs For Pack 318

Fifteen boys have been enrolled into Lemon Grove Cub Scout Pack 318 as a result of the annual Scout Recruit Night.

The new Cubs bring to 62 the membership of the Pack, one of the largest in San Diego county. They are now being assigned to their respective Dens to begin work on their Scout projects.

The first Pack activity for the new members will be the annual Halloween Carnival to be held at the First Congregational Church, 2770 Glebe rd., Monday, Oct. 27. Induction ceremonies will be conducted at the November Pack meeting.

Tom Pacqua's Black Story Rates Press

Tom Pasqua of Southwestern College has an article about ethnic studies in the current edition of an important regional educational journal.

Entitled "Black Is an Attitude," Pasqua's 2,000 word article appears in the October issue of the California Teachers Association Journal.

The four-page article in the quarterly journal also includes four illustrative photographs by Pasqua. The entire magazine followed a pre-announced theme of "What's Relevant?" in education.

Journal editor, J. Wilson McKenney noted in an editorial postscript to the issue that "None of the editorial themes used by the Journal in the last six years have produced as much response from writers as had this question of relevance."

The magazine sifted down to use a dozen freelance answers to the question of "What's Relevant?"

Pasqua's article was a descriptive piece on the opinions of ethnic studies experts who converged in San Diego this June for a nine-day workshop at San Diego State College.

Jamul District Marks 100th Year

This is the Jamul-Las Flores School District's 100th year of operation coinciding with the San Diego 200th Anniversary.

The school has a glass pitcher in the Trophy case in the District office. In 1894, this glass pitcher was awarded to an 8th grade student, Miss Abigail Dail on her graduation from the Jamul school. Her picture and other Jamul-Las Flores history mementos are also in the case.

These remind us of a school heritage going back to 1869 when the school was organized in the western part of the Jamul Land Grant. Since that time there have been many schools in various parts of the present Jamul-Las Flores School District area.

Boundaries have changed many times and the names of the schools that once existed in this area can only add to the heritage of the school district. — Honey Springs, Lee Valley, Lyons Valley, El Nido, Cottonwood, Barrett, Lawson Valley, Las Flores, Dulzura and Jamul.

In 1950, the school districts in the present Jamul-Las Flores District numbered four: Jamul, Barrett, Las Flores, and Dulzura. The Jamul-Las Flores Districts combined and were joined in 1962 by the Barrett School District.

In 1964 upper grade children from Dulzura school district began attending Jamul-Las Flores school.

The Jamul-Las Flores school district covers an area of about 165 square miles. It borders the Chula Vista, El Cajon Valley, Dehesa, Alpine, Mountain Empire, and Dulzura school districts as well as Mexico on the South.

The present Jamul school is located about a 15 minute drive from Spring Valley. It is a beautiful school with an enrollment of over 400 students and operates a separate Junior High School Program.

The Jamul School has 33 employees and has an annual budget of over $330,000. With anticipated growth, the Board of Trustees has directed the Superintedent, Eldon Meyer and assistant Bill Whitley to conduct a study of the future planning and development needs in the District.

There's another side to the story, however.

Over-crowded conditions exist at the school, with classes going on double-session in the primary grades.

The Board of Trustees and staff are handling 400 kids in the school built for 270.

With the Jamul area growing rapidly. Additional room is a necessity.

A bond election, scheduled Tuesday, could help if passed, providing needed additional facilities and room and relieving over-crowded conditions.

Today about 18,000 teams participate in American Legion Junior baseball.

Annual Craft Show Slated

The Women's Committee of the Grossmont Concert Association will present for the enjoyment of the public its annual free Arts and Crafts exhibit Sunday, November 2.

It will be held in the Adult Recreation Building and the adjoining lawn areas of Porter Park, 8450 La Mesa blvd. Ample parking is available across the park next to the Little League Lot.

This exhibit is open to all artists who wish to enter — professionals, amateurs, art students, and anyone who is interested in arts and crafts. Call Mrs. Walter Folcke, 444-6030 or Mrs. John Swennes, 466-1760.

Included in the show will be oil painting, water color, wood carvings, ceramics weaving, flower arrangements, jewelry, hooked rugs, stitchery, and other items of art.

The building will be open at 8:30 a.m. for exhibitors and the Center will furnish tables and chairs. Display equipment must be furnished by exhibitors.

College Begins Program

In continuing its leadership of cultural, educational, and vocational service to the entire east county, Grossmont College has inaugurated a series of public instructional non-credit Community Service Programs designed to meet the requirements of the citizens in the area.

Grossmont College enlisted the aid of leading citizens in the various communities it serves to determine what short non-credit seminars or workshops were most needed in the Grossmont College District.

Specialists on the college staff have outlined the recommended programs and local and regional experts as well as members of the college faculty have been obtained to serve as instructors.

With the first program, a workshop for nurses scheduled to commence on Oct. 16 and already filled to capacity, Grossmont College has selected an Office Skills Workshop and an Aviation Instrument Ground School Instruction Workshop as the next non-credit offerings in its continuing Community Service Program.

The Community Service Programs are coordinated by Walter A. Yuhl, dean of Evening Division and Summer Session. In announcing the new programs, Dean Yuhl said, "Grossmont College will continue to seek ways of expanding and improving its Community Service Programs, and will welcome suggestions from citizens on potential programs of value to the communities it serves."

Bell Labs Develop Improved Batteries

A new cylindrical lead-acid battery that improves its performance during its lifetime—and whose life span actually is twice that of other batteries — has been developed by Bell Telephone Laboratories to protect telephone service.

Bell Telephone companies will use the new battery primarily for emergency power if commercial power sources fail. The Bell System currently maintains more than a million storage batteries in telephone buildings around the country for standby power.

The new battery has an anticipated life span of more than 30 years. In its present form, the battery isn' intended for automobiles, but the principles involved ultimately could be applied to cars.

Right now, the battery is being made in limited quantity — to determine "manufacturability and production economics" — by a Western Electric Company subsidiary, Nassau Smelting and Refining Company, Staten Island, New York. Western Electric is the manufacturing and supply arm of the Bell System.

The battery features circular grids made of pure lead. The pure lead corrodes more slowly than commonly used lead alloys.

The battery's energy-producing material is a paste with a crystal structure designed to interlock for added mechanical strength.

Conventional rectangular batteries fail because the grids, lattice-like frames containing the energy-producing material, corrode and enlarge. In the rectangular batteries, the grids stand side-by-side in the battery case like books on a shelf.

Corrosion causes the grid lattice to enlarge and separate from the energizing material, causing loss of electrical contact and cutting battery performance.

In the new battery, the grids are cupped to a 10-degree angle and are stacked, pancake fashion, one atop the other. These grids consist of a series of concentric circles connected by radial spokes.

Their growth is controlled so that each increases in diameter at exactly the same rate, keeping the distance between the rings constant, and keping the rings and the energizing paste intact.

As time passes, some corrosion does occur. But the corrosion — normally detrimental — has been harnessed to work as an advantage.

The corrosion in the new battery increases the amount of energizing paste, and leads to an increase in the total capacity with age.

Eventually, of course, the battery will fail — but only after a lifetime of what has been estimated conservatively as 30 or more years.

CHECKING SALES — Len Farness, publicity chairman for Kiwanis "Apple Days" sale, checks list of prospective buyers with a pair of helpers, including Mrs. Mary Lou Farness and Mrs. Jeanne Walter. Money will benefit kids in Lemon Grove.

Apple days are here Again — Oct. 22-25

"Apple Days" are coming to Lemon Grove next week.

A freight-car packed with 100,000 juicy, red apples will be backed into a siding here and then the sale begins.

Local Kiwanians are behind the drive, created to make money for various projects aiding local children.

"Apple Days," scheduled to begin Wednesday, began 13 years ago, and has since sold over a million apples.

The money, at $8.50 per case of 100 apples, or 8½ cents an apple, goes to help various Kiwanian projects, such as scholarship funds, lunch programs for needy youths, upkeep for the Lemon Grove park, Scout projects and financing for the annual Kids Day celebration.

Chairman for the sale is Sam Pernicano, while Len Farness, owner and operator of Len's Mens Wear and Brumley's Shoes, on Broadway in Lemon Grove, is publicity chairman.

The merchants on this page are helping to support Kiwanis in the Apple Days drive. Won't you help support them?

Griffs Capsize Apaches, 28-26

Grossmont College was once again hit by the inconsistencies that have plagued it all season Saturday night, only this time the Griffins managed to right the shift at the last moment for a stunning 28-26 Mission Conference victory over Southwestern.

Clint Whitfield's eleven played perhaps its poorest football the first half and most of the third period, but it was 5'11" Greg Gleason who rallied the Griffin forces at quarterback to throw two touchdown passes and score one himself.

Gleason has been playing behind letterman Rick Riker all season, and had thrown only 26 passes for 136 yards all season. Greg was given the call Saturday night, because Riker was still shaken up from the Ventura encounter Oct. 4.

Grossmont was hurt by fumbles in the second quarter, as Gleason fumbled on the Griffin eight, and Louis Oriol fumbled a kickoff on the Grossmont 23 yard line.

Both fumbles set up Apache touchdowns as the Griffins fell behind 20-0 after 17 minutes of play. Gleason cut the margin to 20-6 at halftime, with a 74 yard seven-play drive.

Greg completed four passes in the drive, one to Skip Stephenson for 30 yards, one to Steve Dangutis, who had caught a 48 yarder earlier, for 18 yards, one to Dennis Sutton for 17 yards, and the scoring toss to Don McWhorter for five yards with 6:43 remaining in the quarter.

The second half started the way the first had begun, as Grossmont fumbled on two consecutive punt plays, both deep in Griffin territory. The first time, Bill Worden dropped a punt on the Grossmont 47, but the Griffin defense pushed Southwestern back to the Apache 35.

On the second punt, Dennis Sutton dropped the ball on the Grossmont 37, where Benny Ruiz rambled home on the first play to make the score 26-6 Southwestern.

Grossmont couldn't move the ball after receiving the kickoff, but Gleason marched the team to a score the next time the Griffs took possession.

It was a 71 yard 12 play drive, and was capped on an eight yard Greg Gleason to Bart Williamson pass. Gleason hit Dennis Sutton for the two point conversion to make the score 26-14 Southwestern.

The touchdown was the final play of the third quarter, but the Griffs got the ball right back, as Russ Proctor fell on an Apache fumble on the Southwestern 42 yard line.

Gleason hit Dangutis for 11 yards and Bart Williamson for 26 yards to the Southwestern five, where three plays later Gleason sneaked over for the touchdown.

Steve Wilcox added the extra point to cut the score to 26-21, but both teams failed to move twice and had to punt.

Then, with 6:18 remaining in the game, Grossmont got the break that had been missing all season, as Ed Legace picked up a Southwestern fumble at the Apache 34 yard line.

Gleason hit Skip Stephenson for 19 and 9 yards, but the big play came on a pass interference penalty on the Apache three. Bart Williamson bucked to the one, where Dennis Sutton won the game as he dived over the pile for the touchdown.

Grossmont must now travel to Citrus College Saturday, in what will be a rematch of the Southeastern Conference championship game last year. Citrus won that contest, and the Griffins are looking for a little revenge against the undefeated Owls.

Adams Points Lead Dwindles

With just three races left in the season, the battle for points is coming to a wild finish at Cajon Speedway, with Carl Adams of Lemon Grove clinging to a slim 135 point lead over Jim Whitt.

As the season draws to it's close, Adams, who managed to hold off the fast-closing Jim Whitt last week by winning the main event, will give it everything he's got.

But Whitt is sure to be in the thick of things this Saturday night when he goes into battle the likes of Adams, Ed Hale of Lemon Grove, Russ Bullen, and John Dineen.

Also slated for action this week are the foreign "mini stockers".

Some of the top "mini" drivers from the L.A. area will be in town for the special ten-lap event, including Benny Scott, who ranks first in the point standings for the Foreign Stock Car Racing Association of Southern California.

Adams fought off a strong finish by Hale to win the 30-lap main event super stock car race over Cajon Speedway's 3/8 mile asphault oval, Saturday.

Adams, who took the lead on the seventeenth lap from San Diego's Sonny Tomlinson, took the checkered flag one car length ahead of Hale, with a clocking of 10.50.53.

Hale, who lost a fender on the sixteenth lap when he got tangled up with Gid Goins, took second, while Jim Whitt, of El Cajon grabbed third, John Dineen was fourth and Russ Bullen, the trophy dash winner managed fifth.

In limited stock action, it was Larry Cushman taking the checkered two car lengths ahead of Dan Camp, in the time shortened 10-lap main event with a time of 4:02.16.

Sports Beat

REMEMBER THE NAME — Often overlooked as the guy on the other side, Gary Garrison is etching his name into the memory of fans this season by outdoing Alworth's heroics. Garrison last week caught touchdown passes of 40 and 26 yards to help the Chargers to a 21-14 win over Miami. The scoring tosses were his third and fourth of the year. The former San Diego State receiver and his teammates face winless Patriots in Boston this weekend.

Tourney Set

Marathon tennis tournaments involving 100 women will start in October in several areas of San Diego County and last through April, the San Diego Tennis Patrons Association has announced.

The long-running competitions in doubles serves as a fund-raising activity for junior tennis development, according to Billie Herrick, event chairman.

Those interested in participating should contact one of the area chairmen. Area chairmen are Nancy Strong, Del Cerro; Amy Jarlett, Mission Valley; Betty Klitgaard, Kona Kai Club; Betty Creagh, Balboa Tennis Club; Jan Crockett, South Bay; and Mrs. Herrick, San Carlos.

S.D. Hoop Season Opens at Phoenix

SAN DIEGO — The San Diego Rockets open their third National Basketball Association season tonight at Phoenix, Arizona, against the vastly improved Phoenix Suns.

Following their opener, the San Diegans will continue on the road, traveling to San Francisco for a Saturday night bout with the Warriors.

The Rockets return to San Diego Sunday to prepare for their home opener Wednesday (Oct. 22) at the San Diego Sports Arena against the Milwaukee Bucks and their great star Lew Alcindor.

Eagles, Tim Doerr Put Brakes On Monarch Express, 26-0

By SCOTT McGAUGH

Monte Vista's football winning streak came to an abrupt end last Friday as the Monarchs were drubbed by the Granite Hills Eagles, 26-0.

The Monarchs, coming off a 24-13 win over Helix, never got untracked as the Eagles rushed for 234 yards and threw for 73 more against what had previously been a very stingy Monarch defense.

Tim Doerr of the Eagles was a standout as he constantly kept the Monarchs with their backs to the goal with long punts. Doerr then set up the deciding score with an interception.

The Monarchs will try to rebound this Friday against the Grossmont Foothillers at Monte Vista in an 8 p.m. encounter.

In cross country, the Monarch harriers had an easy time as they literally ran away from Granite Hills, 15-49, nearly a perfect score.

Tom Lux bettered the course record by two seconds with a 9:56 effort. Gilbert Arroyo and Chris Longley followed respectively for the Monarchs.

Randy Newmark also set a record by winning in 10:33 during a 15-50 Jayvee win. Tom Wendt then proceeded to smash the freshman record by 19 seconds to lead the Frosh to a 21-36 win.

The Monte Vista water polo team also came out victorious last week by edging Mount Miguel, 7-6, in their league opener.

Rob Morell and Gordon Dunill picked up two goals each for the Monarchs as Monte Vista is now 1-0 in league play.

The Monte Vista girl swimmers then completed the sports week for the Monarchy with a convincing 40-23 conquest of the El Capitan Vaqueros.

Peggy Mustol and Linda Lukavsky both picked up three wins in leading the Monarchs in their league opener.

Mustol's wins came in the 200 individual medley, 50 freestyle, and 200 freestyle relay while Lukavsky was successful in the 200 individual medley, 100 backstroke, and 200 freestyle.

The swimmers are coached this year by Pat Forsberg and Michael Lambe.

Garcia Named Padres Coach

SAN DIEGO — The San Diego Padres completed their coaching staff for the 1970 season with the appointment of Dave Garcia, a baseball veteran with 32 years experience.

Garcia, 49, replaces Sparky Anderson who signed last week to manage the Cincinnati Reds. Other coaches on manager Preston Gomez' staff are Roger Craig, Wally Moon and Bob Skinner.

He joined the Padres in 1969 and served as a scout and manager of the Padres' Salt Lake City club of the Pioneer League. Garcia's team finished third at Salt Lake.

Prior to joining the Padres, he spent 23 years with new York and San Francisco Giants organization as a minor league manager and scout.

Garcia will continue on scouting assignments for the Padres until 1970 spring training.

GAME GIRL — Although two-year old Amy may be puzzled by the football San Diego State College head grid mentor Don Coryell (right) is holding, it's no mystery to Aztec linebacker Carl Weathers, who visited the youngster this week at the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children in Los Angeles. Coryell's charges take on the University of California at Santa Barbara Oct. 25 in San Diego Stadium in the annual Shrine charity football game, with the entire net proceeds again going toward support of the crippled childrens unit.

Winless Pats Host Chargers

Up is the word for the San Diego Chargers.

Up from the Florida Gold Coast to the Boston Commons, the Chargers travel this week to play the Boston Patriots Sunday.

Up in the Western Division American Football League standings is the journey's goal for San Diego. A victory over Boston would mean a first-class ticket home for a decisive battle against the Oakland Raiders at San Diego Stadium on Oct. 26.

The Chargers (3-2) have won three in a row. The Patriots are winless in five games. They collide Sunday at chummy Alumni Field at Boston College in a game to be televised in San Diego over KOGO-10 and broadcast by KDEO and the Charger network starting at 10:30 a.m.

Leading the league in offense with a 360.4 yard average, San Diego still is bedevilled by its scarcity of scoring. Only once in 1969, have the Chargers tallied more than 21 points.

"Some day we are going to put it all together," said Coach Sid Gillman with a shrug after the Chargers defeated the Miami Dolphins, 21-14, before 34,585 at the Orange Bowl last Saturday night.

The Chargers needed three big plays to subdue the Dolphins. Gary (The Ghost) Garrison caught touchdown passes of 40 and 26 yards from John Hadl. All-League strong safety Kenny Graham returned an interception 65 yards for the game-breaker.

The heroics cost Graham $100, the fine newly imposed for tossing a football into the stands. The referee also stepped off 15 yards against the Chargers on the next kickoff, causing Graham to vow: "I'll never do that again. I can pay the fine, but the team pays for the penalties."

Matadors Tied For First; Trip Helix 8-6

Mt. Miguel High, after years of non-contending, suddenly finds their team tied for first in the Grossmont League football race.

The Matadors, by virtue of an 8-6 win over Helix Friday night, ran their league mark to 2-0, and are tied with Grossmont.

Helix, meanwhile, a pre-season favorite, has seemingly sunk out of sight.

The Highlanders are two games behind the leaders and still have Grossmont, El Capitan and Granite Hills on their schedule.

A safety proved the winning margin Friday night on the Highlanders' field.

Matador defensive back Chris Wilhite tackled Helix quarterback Marty French in the end zone in the second period for the two-pointer.

The Highlanders were forced to submit the ball via a free kick, and the Matadors scored on the next play.

Halfback Ross Ellis, running a sweep, threw a 52-yard scoring pass to tight end Dave Zimmerman for the TD.

Helix managed a touchdown before time ran out in the first half as French passed 15 yards to Steve Coover and 28-yards to Art Evins to get the Scotties close. Coover ran over from the two.

Helix mounted drives twice in the final half but were thwarted on an interception each time by defender Tom Young, who nabbed his third and fourth interceptions of the season.

Usual Miguel threat Billy Joe Winchester was hurt Friday night and only carried 16 times for 40 yards. He did, however, play the part of a decoy effectively.

Miguel now hosts winless El Cajon in an attempt to run their league mark to 3-0. The Braves were tromped, 43-10, by Santana Friday.

Team to beat in the Grossmont League now is dark-horse Grossmont, who derailed El Capitan 28-12.

The Foothillers will visit Monte Vista Friday night, who were disappointed last week by rebounding Granite Hills, 26-0.

'Cordobes' Faces Bulls

TIJUANA — The Bullfight world's top crowd-drawing matador, Spain's Manuel Benitez "El Cordobes," will headline a special post-season bullfight in this city's Plaza Monumental Sunday, November 2 at 2 p.m.

The corrida's starting time has been moved to 2 p.m. in order that crowds may enjoy the bullfight in the full afternoon sun and be away from the plaza well ahead of darkness.

This will be the first local appearance of the mop-haired matador in three years. El Cordobes last fought before standing-room-only crowds at the downtown bullring in Oct. 1966.

El Cordobes was born in abject proverty and began his career by jumping into the bullring from the audience in Cordoval, Spain. He was jailed repeatedly for this but finally won the right to wear a matador's suit of lights.

His exciting and suicidal style caught on with crowds and he has since become the highest paid and most publicized matador in the history of the bullfight.

Average size of a sheep or cattle ranch in Wyoming is 3,900 acres.

Costume Hazards Avoidable

Children who wear dark costumes or ill-fitting masks on Halloween may be exposing themselves needlessly to the danger of accidents, the Automobile Club of Southern California warned.

When crossing streets, youngsters wearing dark Halloween costumes are especially hard for motorists to see, the Auto Club pointed out.

Poorly-fitted masks partially obscure the youngster's vision and make it difficult for him to see oncoming traffic.

The Auto Club urges parents to put some thought into the selection and preparation of Halloween costumes and made the following suggestions:

1. Masks should fit properly so that the child can see well.
2. Loose fitting hoods that completely cover the face should be avoided.
3. The costume should include some white or light-colored cloth or, better yet, some strips of reflective material.
4. The costume should not be so long that it might trip the child.
5. Younger children should be escorted by parents.

Service Academy Posts To Be Filled

WASHINGTON — Prospective candidates for admission next year to the national service academies have only two weeks left to file their applications, Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego, said.

"No applications for the next round of appointments can be accepted after Oct. 30," the Congressman said. Young men interested in attending the academies should either write Van Deerlin at P.O. Box 729, San Diego 92112, or phone his academy appointments secretary, Mrs. Mona Knight, at 233-6267.

Van Deerlin will fill one vacancy each at the Air Force, Naval and Military academies. He can also name candidates for the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy, where classes are formed on the basis of statewide rather than Congressional quotas.

To be eligible for consideration, applicants must be at least 17 but not yet 22 years old on July 1, 1970.

Van Deerlin can nominate as many as 10 constituents for each of the vacancies allotted him.

The San Diego Congressman relies on an open competition method for the selection of his academy candidates. His nominations are based on Civil Service test scores, high school grades and extra-curricular activities. "As a practical matter, a student should have achieved at least a B-average in high school to receive serious consideration," he said.

Time Change Ups Hazards

Accidents go up when the sun goes down. It's a fact, says the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Starting at 2 a.m. Sunday, October 26, clocks will be changed to Standard Time, and darkness will be coming an hour earlier. This means twilight and nightfall will come during pedestrian and vehicular rush hours.

To reduce accidents at this critical period, the Auto Club suggests the following:

1. Cut down driving speed at night.
2. Be especially watchful for pedestrians. Pedestrians wearing dark clothing are difficult to see under artificial light.
3. Keep headlights and windshields clean to provide maximum visibility.
4. Check taillights, turn signals, and high and low beams to make sure they are working properly.
5. Make allowance for your age. Let vanity take the back seat to intelligence. Recovery from glare takes longer for older drivers than for younger ones. Adjust your speed accordingly.

SDS Invades Steer Country

If you think you can see hoof marks on some of the San Diego State football players, you may be right.

The Aztecs made their first venture ever into the state of Texas for a grid clash last Saturday and won a hard-fought 24-14 struggle with a rugged herd of Buffaloes from West Texas State.

This Saturday, Don Coryell's crew will travel back again to the land of steers and oil wells for a meeting with the University of Texas at Arlington. The Rebels dropped a 23-18 thriller to SDS last year as the Aztecs rallied to win in the final two minutes.

San Diego opened the 1969 season with a pair of romps, but it certainly didn't have everything its own way with the tough Texans.

"We played a good, fired-up football team," remarked a relieved Coryell after the contest. "We'r'e darned pleased to win that game. They were a real good team."

Aztec defensive co-ordinator Claude Gilbert was also impressed with the Buffs. "We went down there realizing we would be facing some good backs," commented Gilbert. "Rocky Thompson was outstanding and Clarence Redic was a good little quarterback."

The Aztecs had held opponents to MINUS 58 rushing in the first two games but saw their fine mark vanish as the Buffalo backs thundered for 140 yards.

"We knew they had good runners," said Gilbert, "and I feel yielding only 140 yards was a pretty decent night's work."

Gulls Seek First Win Saturday

The San Diego Gulls, still seeking their first win of the 1969-70 Western Hockey League season, get back into action this weekend against an old enemy, the Portland Buckaroos.

The Gulls and Buckaroos will meet Saturday night at the Sports Arena in their first regular season meeting of the year.

During the exhibition season, the teams met once and the Gulls came away with a 9-2 win in the final game of the four team WHL tournament at the Portland Memorial Coliseum.

The Buckaroos have defeated the Gulls, four games to three, in the semifinal round of the WHL playoffs in each of the last two seasons, so these two teams are in no way strangers to each other.

The Bucks feature such WHL stars as Con "Mad Dog" Madigan; Art Jones, who led the WHL in scoring with 114 points last season; Bill Saunders, who had 112 points and a league-leading 53 goals, and Norm Johnson, fourth in the scoring race with 90 points.

The Gulls worked hard in practice all week following a pair of 4-2 losses last weekend. They opened the season with a loss to the new Salt Lake Golden Eagles Friday night in Salt Lake City, then returned home and dropped the Sports Arena opener to the Phoenix Roadrunners before a sellout crowd of 13,632.

It was the first home opening loss for the Gulls in four seasons of play. The crowd was the largest opening night throng in Gull history. Also, the Sports Arena's 4,000-car parking lot was jammed to capacity for the first time.

The crowd was the third largest in Gulls' history.

GC Runners Pull Sweep

Grossmont College's cross-country team, running without standout Dave Carter, showed awesome strength by playing with Palomar, 15-48 Friday at San Farcos.

Brent Wilson ran the hilly four miles in 22:18 to win and lead five other mates across the finish.

Danny Matheny, Roger Drummond, Joe Mears and Neil Wilson ran across together in second, clocking 23:01.

Steve Gillean, normally a half-miler, was sixth in 23:14.

After a pair of Palomar runners, came Ray Santos (9th at 24:25) and Jim Rendina (10th at 24:52).

The Griffins will travel to Riverside City College for another conference meet on Friday.

Car Wash Slated

Helix High School's International Club will hold a car wash Oct. 18 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Helix faculty parking lot. Tickets will cost 75 cents.

Kerry Jacobsen, International Club president, reported that the car wash tickets will be on sale. They may be purchased from "I" Club members anytime before Oct. 18 or at the car wash.

The money will go for general club expenses and the "I" Club scholarship plan to send American students abroad.

Experts Encourage Safe Treat

Nearly 50 million youngsters will be out trick or treating this Halloween. It will be fun for most but, unfortunately, a few will be involved in accidents and may be seriously injured or even killed.

Parents must make an extra effort to reduce the hazards their children will face this night, warns Agnes Beaton, women's safety activities director of the Allstate Insurance Companies.

"Your child's costume can be a source of trouble itself. It should not be so long that it will trip the child nor so loose that it might catch on fences or bushes. Boys should not wear heavy boots nor girls high heels. Sharp objects like make-believe swords should be avoided.

"Fire is a serious threat on Halloween," Mrs. Beaton continued. "Bad burns may be avoided by dipping costumes and wigs in a fire retardant solution purchased at your retail store or made at home with nine ounces of borax, four ounces of boric acid and one gallon of hot water. Also light that indoor jack-o'-lantern with a flashlight instead of a candle."

She pointed out that too often children's costumes are made of dark colored material which increases their chances of not being seen by drivers as they cross streets at night. "Parents can help to correct this by making or purchasing light colored costumes.

"Children should be instructed to remove their Halloween masks when crossing streets to avoid having their vision obstructed, or, better yet, use face make-up in place of masks. They also should be told to travel in groups, stay away from unfamiliar areas and cross streets only at intersections or pedestrian crossings.

"Drivers should take extreme caution on Halloween by driving no faster than 20 miles per hour in residential areas," Mrs. Beaton urged.

Finally, she urges homeowners to make their yards safe for roaming trick or treaters by tying strips of white rag on guards around newly planted trees. Also, hazards such as trash cans, lawn mowers, and bicycles that tend to encourage vandals should be properly stored. It's also wise to leave plenty of outside lights burning.

Golden Ave. Slates Carnival

The Golden Ave/ PTA Halloween Carnival will be held on Oct. 31 from the hours 5:15 to 9 p.m. The costume contest will be at 7 p.m.

The county store will have many creative gems for you to buy.

Hungry Ghosts and Goblins may feast on hamburgers, tacos, chile, hot dogs, and chile dogs. Several tiny tot booths will be available.

Mrs. Jean Seymore is carnival chairman.

Average per capita consumption of veal in 1968 was 3.6 pounds.

Art Show Scheduled

The Foothills Art Association will present its annual Art Mart at the College Grove Shopping Center, Oct. 24 and 25. Many well known local artists will be showing and all paintings will be for sale.

Quail are now grown commercially.

CONSIDERATION — Lemon Grove community leaders meet to select four local civic groups eligible to receive a $500 donation from Southern California First National Bank as part of the 200th anniversary and remodeling of the bank's Lemon Grove Office.
The selections will be mailed to residents who may vote for their choice by depositing the ballots at the Lemon Grove Office, 3285 Imperial Avenue.

Helix, MV Runners Top Rivals

The cross-country race is starting to get hot.

Helix took after Mt. Miguel with a vengeance after last-week's controversial one-point loss to Monte Vista.

The Highlanders allowed only second-place finisher Gary Heiserman to penetrate the top six and ran off with the meet, 19-38.

Junior Ed Mendoza, the area's top two-miler, paced over the rambling, two-mile course in 9:56, 14 seconds ahead of Heiserman.

Helix swept the next four places, before Joe Stubbs, Lex Nelson and Bob Morrison arrived.

The Monarchs, meanwhile, were out to prove something themselves, and took it out on Granite Hills, 15-49, sweeping the top six places and breaking three course records.

Junior Tom Lux ran the two-miles in 9:56, eight seconds under the week-old course record set by Miguel's Morrison.

Gilbert Arroyo, far back in the Helix meet, signalled his return to form, running second in 10:08.

Randy Newmark broke the junior varsity course record, running 10:33, while freshman Tom Wendt shaved 19 seconds from the existing 9th-grade standard with his 8:07.

Miguel hosts strong El Cajon, Monte Vista entertains Grossmont and Helix takes on El Capitan in Friday meets.

Diabetes Tests Readied

Free diabetes tests will be conducted on successive Saturdays at two San Diego locations, the S.D. Diabetes Assn., said.

The tests, which take only a few minutes, will be given at the Red Cross bldg., 3650 5th ave., and Linda Vista Recreation Center, 7063 Levant st., Linda Vista.

Services, equipment and supplies are furnished free of charge by doctors and laboratories.

College Opens Blood Bank

Grossmont College in cooperation with the San Diego County Blood Bank has inaugurated a Blood Bank for the benefit of students and staff members of the college.

According to Charles T. Seymour, health services officer at the college, the Blood Bank will be established as a service to the Grossmont College community.

Seymour said, "The Blood Bank is designed to ensure, should the need arise, an adequate supply of whole blood for the use of Grossmont College students and their dependents as well as faculty and staff members and their dependents.

"The service will be available on a twelve-month basis and will be operated in accordance with rules and regulations established by the San Diego County Blood Bank," Seymour added.

Nader To Speak

Ralph Nader, consumer crusader and author of Unsafe At Any Speed, will be on the campus of the University of California, San Diego Thursday, Oct. 23, to give a lecture and participate in informal discussions.

Nader, who is presently investigating the Federal Trade Commission, will present a lecture at noon in Revelle Plaza on the topic: "The Federal Trade Commission — Is It Doing Its Job?"

The Harvard Law School graduate will also hold informal discussions at 2 to 4 p.m. in the Revelle Commons Language Lounge. The public is invited at no charge.

Nader is being brought to UCSD by the Campus-Wide Coordinating Committee for Special Programming.

Bridge Ranks 5th

August traffic on State-owned toll bridges soared to a record 10,853,408 crossings including a healthy 725,296 counted on the new San Diego-Coronado Bay Bridge during its first month.

The newest of the State's eight toll bridges immediately assumed fifth rank in traffic volume.

It was the first month the all-bridge total had exceeded 10,000,000 and it also marked the first time that the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge did not carry more than half the total.

Walter Johnson pitched three successive complete games on Sept. 4-7, 1908 and won all of them by shutouts.

Area Residents Vote on Award

Residents of the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area will have the opportunity next week to decide which of four local civic groups will receive a $500 donation from Southern California First National Bank.

The bank announced the donation as part of a week-long celebration to commemorate the 20th anniversary and recent remodeling of its Lemon Grove Office.

Residents will vote for their choice by ballot to be deposited at the Lemon Grove Office, 3285 Imperial ave. Ballots have been mailed to all families in the area.

Southern California First National's Lemon Grove Office is open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Monday, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday and 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Friday and ballots most be deposited during these hours. Voting will take place until 5:30 p.m. Friday, October 24. The winning group will be announced that evening.

The four civic groups eligible for the $500 donation are the Lemon Grove Business Women's League Inc., the Lemon Grove Band Parents Association, Lemon Grove-Spring Valley scouting troops and the Old Times Day Association. Residents also will have the opportunity to write in their choice of any other civic organization.

A panel of community leaders selected the four groups appearing on the ballot mainly on the basis of need rather than size of an organization.

The panel selecting the organizations was composed of Frank Shughrue Jr., assistant vice president and manager of the Lemon Grove Office; Chief Harold Hensley, Lemon Grove Fire Protection District; Byron Netzley, superintendent of Lemon Grove School District and A. F. "Tony" Sonka, Lemon Grove businessman.

The bank's anniversary and remodeling of its office coincides with the 100th anniversary of Lemo Grove. The bank has planned a week-long celebration and will serve refreshments as part of open house festivities.

During Monday night's open house, residents will be able to inspect the completely remodeled office which celebrated its 20th anniversary in Lemon Grove on June 29.

"The lobby has been enlarged and the counters, carpets, drapes, stained-glass partition and furniture have been added," according to Shughrue. The bank will use as an escrow office and conference room, two offices which were formerly rented, he said.

The Lemon Grove Business Women's League Inc., carries out fund raising activities through the year to maintain a park in Lemon Grove adjacent to the San Diego, Arizona and Eastern Railway tracks between North avenue and Central avenue. The park has been leased from the railway for over 30 years.

The Lemon Grove Band Parents Association consists of parents of students in the Lemon Grove School District band who raise money for band uniforms through various fund-raising activities.

Third on the ballot will be the scouting troops in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area. The funds would be distributed to the groups through scout headquarters.

The Old Times Day Association is the community organization which formulates the community plan with the county. Money would be placed in the community planning fund to plan development of the Lemon Grove area.

Dog Classes Begin Soon

Registration are now being taken for the fall session of obedience training classes at the San Diego Humane Society starting on Oct. 21 and 22. Interested persons may telephone the Society at 298-9837.

Lt. Louis Martin, an experienced trainer will teach an afternoon class to be held every Wednesday for eight weeks starting at 1 p.m. on Oct. 22. The classes last for one hour for an eight week period.

Carl Sharratt, long experienced in obedience training will conduct the evening classes. Small breed classes will be held at 7 p.m. Sharratt will also conduct a large breed class starting Oct. 22 at 7 p.m.

Student Power

"Student Power," a one-hour assessment of the coming year on California's college and university campuses, open KEBS-TV's "Under 30" series tonight at 7 p.m. on Channel 15.

Student editors, blacks, whites, chicanos, radicals and conservatives from San Francisco State to San Diego are featured in the program.

"Student Power" repeats Sunday, at 10 p.m. and it is also scheduled for viewing Oct. 21 at 8 p.m. on stations in the Western Educational Television Network.

Spanish Soloist Due

Alicia de Larrocha, considered one of the great pianists of our day, appears as the first soloist on the San Diego Community Concert 1969-70 series.

Her San Diego concert will be Oct. 21, at 8:15 p.m. at the Civic Theater.

Called by critics the "Queen of Virtuosos," the Spanish pianist's interpretation of her country's music is said to be unrivaled.

Q—I am a veteran with three years of active duty — 1959 to 1962. I was totally and permanently disabled by an accident. Am I entitled to a nonservice connected pension?

A—The answer is no. The basic requirement for nonservice connected pension is that the veteran have at least 90 days active duty, any part of which was during wartime. Your active duty was not during wartime.
